

Make sure you're understood

Resources for communicating with people with a learning disability

Price List 2008

All the resources listed have been designed specifically to help you to communicate effectively with people with a learning disability.

About Me – A Person Centred Approach £10.00

This new resource gives information on how organisations can be more Person Centred in supporting people who access services. It has word banks, planning tools, examples of 'good practice' example of how to put the communication bill of rights into action. Also includes Mencaps guidelines for accessible writing. A 'must have' resource for all.

For social workers, advocates, therapists, support workers and friends and family.

Designed by Torbay Care Trust – Partners in Care – a £2.50 royalty is paid to the project for every resource sold.

My Life, My Home £65.65 (poly pockets), £48.15 (hole punch)

This pack helps you support someone to live in their own home, identify areas for future support and to set realistic goals. Resource material ranges from budgeting to recipe sheets with much more in between. A £5.00 royalty is paid to the Devon County Council Wywurree Project for every resource sold.

For families or professionals.

Resource pack with photographs, symbols, worksheets and a CD.

Developed within the Devon County Council Wywurree Project – a £5.00 royalty is paid to the project for every resource sold.

Skills for Living £49.95 (poly pockets), £35.95 (hole punch)

Housing, work, health, education and travel are just some of the eight topics covered in this comprehensive pack, which complements My Life, My Home. It will help you to support someone to live semi-independently. A £5.00 royalty is paid to the Devon County Council Wywurree Project for every resource sold.

For families or professionals. Resource pack with photographs, symbols, worksheets & CD.

Developed within the Devon County Council Wywurree Project – a £5.00 royalty is paid to the project for every resource sold.

The ISAC-A – Initial Service Assessment Checklist for Adults: £35

This pack was developed by clinical psychologists and is a comprehensive essential assessment tool. This tool is intended to help the process of matching client need and service provision. Pack consists of flashcards, assessment sheets – reading, money skills, etc.

Designed by Devon Partnership NHS Trust - a £5.00 royalty is paid to the project for every resource sold.

Leaving School – what next? £6.50

This booklet supports discussions with school-leavers with a learning disability about the options open to them.

For teachers and careers advisors. Booklet with photographs and symbols

Produced by students at Plymouth College of Further Education

Someone has Died £23.50

Designed to be part of a holistic approach to communicating bereavement and loss, this pack uses photographs, symbols and text. The worksheets can act as a lasting aid for remembering friends and family members who have died.

Resource pack with photographs, symbols, worksheets and text.

Developed by a multi-agency group, led by the Learning Disability Service in South Devon.

Going to Hospital £55

Explaining an operation or medical procedure is much easier with this set of cards. Using them, you can explain to someone with a learning disability what to expect from treatment or what is happening to someone close to them. Seeing the pictures may also help to alleviate the anxiety of the unknown.

For health professionals, care workers and family

Folder with 265 laminated A6 cards containing photos, symbols and simple text

Living with Cancer – the Cancer Journey £89.25

You will be able to meet the information needs of patients with communication difficulties with this pack. It has guidance on how to give information, and contains resources to support it.

The pack is comprehensive covering prevention and screening as well as diagnosis and treatment. Sections on cancer prevention include how to eat healthily, taking care of yourself in the sun and smoking.

For health professionals and family

Laminated pack with CDs, DVD video, pictures and symbols

My Life, My Plan £33

You will help people with communication difficulties to find their voice with this set of visual materials. Using it you will enable people to express their wishes about their life, identify their goals and create a life plan.

For social workers, advocates, therapists, support workers and friends and family.

Resource pack with modules for photocopying covering many aspects of life, laminated flashcards, symbol stickers and a CD.

Designed by Devon County Council Learning Disability Team

The Road to Independence £27

This pack has lots of ideas to help you train adults and children with learning disabilities or poor confidence levels to travel independently. Use the step-by-step guide to develop your programme.

Resource pack with lots of colour photos and symbols.

