The European Social Fund aims to improve employment opportunities for:

- people with disabilities and health conditions
- lone (single) parents
- other disadvantaged parents and carers
- older workers
- ethnic minorities, and
- people who are facing other disadvantages (this includes ex-offenders).

Jobcentre Plus uses the European Social Fund to provide financial support to organisations that deliver a range of training and employment opportunities and promote:

- employability (a person's ability to find and keep a job)
- business spirit
- equal opportunities, and
- investment in human resources.

If you would like to know more about the European Social Fund, please contact Jobcentre Plus.

If you have a complaint about the service you have received and your service provider is not able to deal with it, you can get in touch with Jobcentre Plus. We will make sure that your complaint is dealt with and let you know what we will do.
