What is it?

It is a programme that gives help with finding and keeping paid work.

What is it for?

To give help in all sorts of ways to disabled people who find it very hard to find and keep work.

You can get help with your training in and away from the workplace.

WORKSTEP helps you as long as you need the help.

What are the benefits for the jobseeker?

The jobseeker has an individually tailor-made package to help them find and keep a job

This could include support for job seeking, job matching, interview preparation and an assessment of training needs.

Once in a job, a package of monitoring and possible supports can be provided.

These can include Job coaching, advice, equipment, guidance and development opportunities to lead towards progression into full and open employment.

What are the benefits for the Employer?

The employer can find good quality staff.

They will get support, guidance and advice on ways to help you do your job.

We can help by advising on ways to fund any equipment, aids or adaptations that you may need.

Who is it for?

People with disabilities as defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 and who meet the eligibility criteria set by Jobcentre Plus.
